

The dearest suit you can buy may be the lowest in price. A suit that doesn't wear or hold its shape is dear, no matter how little you pay for it.

IF WE TAILOR YOUR SUIT its first cost will be no more than your ordinary pay. Its better fit, its better wear, its permanent good shape, however, will make it really cheaper in the end than any other suit you could buy. Come in and be measured. You need a new suit, anyway. Why not have the best when it costs no more?

SPECIAL SERVICE FOR PARENTS AND YOUNG PEOPLE

At the Baptist church, at 7:30 this evening, March 28th, Judge Volney C. Gunnell will speak on the work of the Juvenile court. It is expected that parents and others interested in children will make special effort to hear this address and the speaker intends to present an outline of the law as relating to parents and children, and explain the purposes and operations of the court. Necessarily the duty of the state, the duty of the parent and the duty of the child will be touched upon—the failures of each and the results, from topics most interesting and important which highly civilized people have to deal with, and these will not be overlooked.

Not only should parents attend this meeting but they should see that girls and boys in their teens come, as the whole purpose of the judge and the church authorities is to benefit young people.

The large Sunday school room will be thrown open to accommodate the young people in attendance, if needed. Persons who are not members of any church, and those not accustomed to attending church are especially invited to attend this service and bring their children. There will be music suitable to the occasion, and which you will certainly enjoy.

LUNCHEON FOR BRUNO HOBBS.

Wednesday at noon, S. J. Griffin gave an informal luncheon at the Reed hotel in honor of Bruno Hobbs, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. of New York city, and other workers. Those who attended the function were Bruno Hobbs, C. P. Dodge, publisher of the Gazette of Colorado Springs, Colo., Oscar Cox, secretary of the Salt Lake Y. M. C. A.; the Rev. W. C. Beale of Salt Lake; Chief of Police Browning; Professor F. M. Driggs of the State School for the Deaf and Blind; Professor W. M. McDerrick, of the Weber Academy; S. H. Browne, C. F. Middleton, Dr. Mills and others. The affair was purely of an informal nature, the object being to consider briefly the Y. M. C. A. work of the city. Short speeches were made by nearly all who surrounded the banquet table, expressing the thought that definite steps toward furnishing proper quarters and entertainment for the young men should be taken. The idea of building a Y. M. C. A. gymnasium and amusement hall was heartily endorsed.

"THE ROMANCERS"

"The Romancers" is to be produced Friday evening, at the Fifth Ward Amusement Hall. It is a play of dainty sweetness and high comedy. There are two fathers, a loving pair of hearts, a gardener, and a painter. The fathers desire nothing more than that Silvette and Percinette marry one another so, being wise fathers, they resolve to give to the young people that which they ardently long for, a romance. Accordingly, they hire eight men and a sedan chair of the painter. He engineers a false abduction from which Percinette rescues his love. Next they pretend to be mortal enemies and forbid their children to even speak to one another. This command makes it necessary for loving conversations to be held secretly behind the wall. After everything has been arranged, however, the fathers have a real quarrel and spoil it all by showing to Silvette the bill that the painter has sent them for the men and the chair. Accordingly, she and Percinette break the engagement.

The father refuse to pay the painter's bill since the engagement is broken, and the latter, in need of money, concludes that he himself must bring about the marriage. He sets to work and after many interesting and very amusing actions and words brings about the desired result.

DRIVER-PEARSON.

A wedding of unusual interest occurred at Ocean Park, California, on March 15, when Miss Ida Driver, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Driver, became the bride of William B. Pearson. The ceremony was solemnized at the winter home of the bride's parents, and was followed by a wedding breakfast.

Among the invited guests at the large reception given in honor of the young couple, were Mr. George Driver, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Burton and daughter, Pearl, Mr. Ruoben F. Hurton, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Wright and daughters, Rachel and Florence Wright, and son, Lawrence Wright, Mrs. D. H. Peery, Mrs. David Eccles, Mrs. Sidney Stevens, Mrs. Major Breeden, Mrs. John E. Bagley, Mrs. William Pearce, Mrs. George Poulter, Mrs. Aaron Jackson, Mrs. A. V. Kirby, Mrs. Charles Andrews and daughters, Josephine and Nellie Andrews, Mrs. Ruth Townsend, Mrs. E. D. Raddon, Miss Charlissa Raddon, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Daynes, Mrs. Jos. E. Robinson, Mrs. G. G. Van, Miss Emma Lindsey, Miss Ella Paulter, Miss Florence Wright, Miss Alice Percel, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McPhee, Mr. and Mrs. E. Parkenson.

APOLLO CLUB.

On Tuesday last, members of the Apollo club gathered for a social evening at the residence of Mr. N. O. Ogden, where they were royally entertained. After choice selections had been rendered by members of the club, the host reciprocated by serving refreshments and a most delightful evening was spent. These who were present pronounced it the most enjoyable affair of the season.

MRS. SMYTHE ENTERTAINS.

Mrs. L. D. Smythe entertained the ladies' society of B. of S. F. and E. at her home, at Twenty-ninth street, Friday afternoon. The pleasure of the afternoon was added to by a surprise parcel, presented by the firemen. After a very enjoyable and profitable time, a delicious luncheon was served.

Those present were Mesdames Maud Healy, Annie Morsehead, Della Larsen, Minnie Hart, Sadie Jones, Mrs. Nellie Stevens, Gertrude Pell, J. Westmore, Mildred Smythe, Kate F. Biddle and Mrs. West.

The society will meet at the home of Mrs. Westmore, on Lincoln avenue, Friday.

SURPRISE PARTY.

A pleasant surprise was given Friday in honor of G. B. Hart at his home, 2532 Lincoln avenue, the occasion being his twenty-fourth birthday. The evening was spent at cards and music, after which a fine supper was served. Prizes were won by Mrs. Best, Mr. Plantz, Mrs. Watkins and Mr. Belkard.

Mr. Hart was the recipient of many appropriate birthday gifts.

TOLSTOI CIRCLE.

The Tolstoi circle held a most profitable meeting on Tuesday, at the home of Mrs. Star, on Monroe avenue. Mrs. Rosenbluth read that beautiful poem by Mrs. Browning, "Sir Walter's Wife." Mrs. Condon gave a fine review of "Her Majesty's Rebels," in which she showed marked ability in bringing out the strong points of the work.

Mrs. Cook read a little poem that appealed to each one present as being meant for her own individual self, entitled, "The House by the Side of the Road."

After the close of the literary program, Mrs. Cook, in behalf of the club, presented Mrs. Bassett, who is going away with a subscription to a magazine, "The Literary Digest."

The social hour, during which the hostess served dainty refreshments, was enjoyed by all. The invited guests were Mrs. Elderkin, Mrs. Maltland and Mrs. Lyons.

FAREWELL PARTY.

Mrs. Alex Huss entertained the Guards of Ogden Circle No. 531, Women of Woodcraft, at her home on Twenty-second street, last Friday evening, to make her future home in Roxbury, Idaho. Games were played and a very pleasant evening spent, after which Mrs. Huss, assisted by Miss Alice Allen, served a very dainty supper in the dining room. The rooms were pleasing and attractive to the eye, being artistically decorated in red, white and blue, as well as the other colors, red, white and green. All enjoyed a pleasant evening and left after a late hour, regretting to lose one of their hard and faithful workers, but wishing Mrs. Allen success and happiness in her new home. The prizes at cards were won by Mrs. Holland, Mrs. Griffin, Mrs. Buno, and Mrs. Luddington.

Those present besides Mrs. Allen were Mrs. Holland, Mrs. Freeland, Mrs. Dyckman, Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Luddington, Mrs. Griffin, Mrs. Buno, Mrs. Bigelow, Mrs. Blodgett, and Miss Allen.

PLEASANT SURPRISE.

Little Miss Vera Minnoch was pleasantly surprised at her home Thursday evening, the occasion being her tenth birthday. Music and games were enjoyed, after which a luncheon was served.

Those present were Misses Margaret Munro, Edna Ludwig, Elizabeth Condo, Marguerite Clements, La Verne Munro, Florence Clites, Helen Conroy, Kathryn Conroy, Mildred Ware, Ilme Bennett, Kathryn Munro; Masters Frank Riddough, William Clements, Kenneth Riddough, Clay Watson, Joe Clements, Martie Murphy, Donald Minnoch.

WEBER CLUB RECITAL.

The recital given at the Weber club here Thursday night by Madame Swenson for her advanced pupils proved one of the musical events of the season. The madame brought with her two pupils from Salt Lake—W. L. Richardson, basso, and H. I. Bowles, baritone. The Schubert quartet of that city, composed of Messrs. Moncar, Christensen, Burt and Richardson, was also present and rendered "A Serenade," by Dr. Parry, and "Nocturne," by Protheroe, two of the selections given by the quartet at the recent Elstedtdoff, at which they won first prize.

Mr. Richardson sang two operatic selections in a pleasing manner, while Mr. Bowles sang "Der Asia," by R. W. Wagner, and "Daddy Deever," by Walter Damrosch. Those who took part from Ogden were as follows: Mrs. C. V. Zinn, soprano; M. Matson, baritone; Mrs. W. G. Dalrymple, soprano; Mrs. R. B. Porter, soprano; Miss Margaret Armstrong played violin obligatos for several of the numbers. Mrs. W. E. Kneass of this city and Miss Rossburg and Miss Anna Watson of Salt Lake played the accompaniments. The concert was followed by a social, which lasted until a late hour.

SEVENTIETH ANNIVERSARY.

A large family reunion was held Thursday evening at the home of Nathan Hawkes in West Weber, the occasion being in honor of Mrs. Hawkes' seventieth birthday, and also the fortieth anniversary of the marriage of the venerable couple. The house was beautifully decorated, evergreens and flowers being effectively used. The evening was spent in music and reminiscent speeches, and concluded with a splendid supper. All present were unanimous in the wish that Mr. and Mrs. Hawkes would enjoy many more happy anniversaries.

Those present besides members of the family were George F. Hunter, Ellen Hunter, Elizabeth Adamson, Thomas Gibson, Katherine Gibson, Walter Hadley, Elizabeth Hadley, William Jardine, Gena Jardine, James B. Hunter, George Etherington, Annie Etherington, Jacob Gibson, Mary Gibson, Margaret A. Greenwell, Daniel Rogerson, Lydia Rogerson, Frank Wright, Emma Wright, Rose Greenwell, Laura McConnell, R. A. McConnell, William M. Purrington, Elizabeth Purrington, Charles B. McFarland, Adella McFarland, Christine Hunter, Mary J. Hunter, Elizabeth Bowman.

SILVER WEDDING.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Jones entertained about one hundred guests at their home in Hooper, Utah, Friday, in celebration of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. They were recipients of many beautiful pieces of silver.

The home was beautifully decorated with silver and tinsel. The tables were elaborately spread with seasonable delicacies, and were tastefully arranged.

After the bounteous repast the remainder of the evening was merrily spent.

The features of the evening's entertainment were a welcome address by James H. Jones, response by Edwin Parker, songs by James and Mrs. Jones, which they sang on their wedding day twenty-five years ago; a letters of greeting from their son, Charles, who is on a mission in England, music and songs by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ramsey, of Provo.

The oldest brother of the groom from Provo, and his sisters, Mrs. Holliday and Mrs. Mahnklin of Salt Lake, also relatives and friends of Ogden and Hooper were present. All expressed a desire to be present at the golden wedding event of twenty-five years hence.

'09 O. H. S. ENTERTAINED.

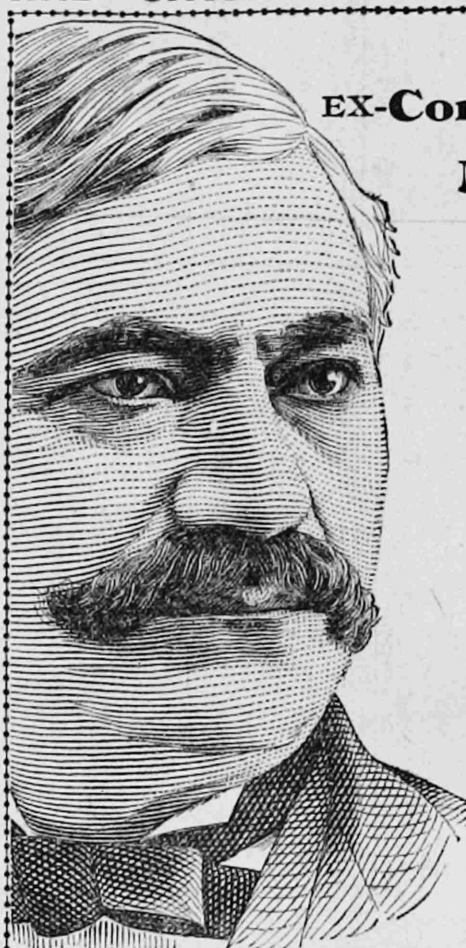

The Senior class of the Ogden High school was entertained Thursday evening by Misses Elva Littlefield, Lou Wilcox, and Elsie Browning at the home of Miss Browning. The home was profusely decorated in the school colors, orange and black. Cards were played, high five being the game, and prizes were won by Miss Lou Browning and Thomas Horn. Following the card games, a dainty luncheon was served.

Besides members of the class, the following were present: Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Cross, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Steele, Miss Susie Raborne, Thomas Horn, Miss Kyle, Miss Martin, Miss Stevens, Miss Corbin and Miss Jennie Anderson.

An appreciative audience greeted the University Dramatic club of Salt Lake in the presentation of "The Cabinet Minister," at the Grand theater Thursday night. All of the players carried their parts with credit. The blind orchestra from the State School for the Deaf and Blind, added to the program with a number of selections. Miss Catherine Costley, an alumnus of the university, entertained the members of the club after the performance at dinner in a local cafe.

Self-love is a principle of action, but among no class of human beings has nature so profusely distributed this principle of life and action as through the whole sensitive family of genies.—Isaac Disraeli.
